

31. Tiger

(Jo Puma song based on Sacred Harp song #569 "Sacred Throne" - originally in Bb-Major)

Words: Secretary Michael

Music: Hugh Wilson, 1764-1824

$\text{♩} = 56$

Treble (M&F)
Jo Ma Ma Pu Jo Jo Pu Pu Ma Jo Ma Ma Pu Ma Pu

Alto
Ma Pu Pu Jo Ma Pu Ma Pu Pu Jo Pu Pu Pu Pu Pu Jo

Tenor (M&F) Melody
Pu Jo Ma Pu Jo Pu Ma Pu Jo Ma Pu Ma Pu Jo Ma

Bass
Jo Jo Jo Jo Ma Jo Pu Pu Jo Jo Jo Jo Pu Ma Jo Ma

1. I saw a great big ti-ger on a tree-top in the
2. I shou-ted up: "Sir, you could be a ve-ge-tar-i-
3. "I know that deep in-side there's good. I know it's not you're
4. I stared at him and soft-ly said: "I wish you would be
5. "A-po-lo-gize! A-po-lo-gize! And af-ter your a-
6. He turned a-round and walked a-way and said I was a
7. We are not bad, we are not good, we're on-ly you and
8. (repeat verse 7)

All works by Secretary Michael have been placed in the Public Domain. They may be freely copied and performed.

8

Pu Ma Jo Pu Ma Jo Jo Ma Pu Pu Ma Ma Jo Pu Pu Ma
 Bee Bee Pu Pu Pu Pu Ma Jo Bee Pu Ma Jo Pu Ma Jo Bee Pu
 Pu Pu Ma Pu Jo Ma Jo Ma Pu Ma Pu Ma Jo Pu Ma Pu Jo
 Pu Pu Jo Pu Jo Ma Jo Jo Jo Jo Pu Jo Jo Jo Ma Jo Pu Pu Jo

woods. "A-ha!" I thought "now here's my chance to change a bad to good."
 -an." He roared back down: "And you could be a hot dog on a bun."
 fault." The ti-ger jumped down from the tree: "You might be good with salt."
 sweet." He stared right back and then com-plained: "I wish you had more meat."
 -mends, we'll try to start back up a-gain so we can both be friends."
 nut. He left me all a-lone to some-how fi-gure what was what.
 me. And in the end we must ac-cept each o-ther as we be.

G Major: Jo Pu Ma Jo Pu Ma Bee Jo